

How to spot an opioid overdose

If you notice someone who:

- Is not completely awake or is totally unresponsive, and
- is breathing slowly or not at all (they may be snoring), and
- has 'pinpoint' pupils

Immediately phone 111 and follow the instructions from the emergency call-taker.

Hato Hone
St John

theLevel.org.nz

A straight up guide for people who use drugs